PRESS RELEASE

Schuyler County Industrial Development Agency Seeks Nominees for (3) Vacant Board Positions

The Schuyler County Industrial Development Agency (SCIDA) has three vacant positions on its Board of Directors, effective December 31, 2025.

By Agreement with the Schuyler County legislature, which is responsible for appointing replacement directors to the SCIDA Board, SCIDA has agreed to notify the public of this vacancy and seek applicants from interested residents.

Applicants must be current residents of Schuyler County and be in a position to officially represent a local government, school board or labor union within the County or possess significant experience in the operation or management of a private business.

“The IDA does very important work for the vitality of our community,” said John Terry, Chairman of the IDA, “It is meaningful to have a role in the future of our economy.”

To apply, applicants should simply forward a letter identifying their current residence, along with an appointment letter from the organization they will represent or a resume detailing their business experience and send it to the Schuyler County Industrial Development Agency, 216 N. Franklin Street, Watkins Glen, NY 14891.

Applications must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, October 10, 2025.
